

ANTI-HUGHES PICTURE EXCITES G. O. P. IRE

Willcox, in Statement, Calls It "False and Malicious."

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Nov. 5.—William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee, tonight made public an open letter sent to Chairman Vance McCormick, of the Democratic National Committee, denouncing the Wilson advertisement cartoon circulated today as "false and malicious in every line and word, and a fitting climax to a Democratic campaign of deception and misrepresentation."

The cartoon which drew the fire of the Republican chairman, pictures Hughes, with his hand guided by the arm of invisible government, wiping off progressive laws and labor legislation enacted by the Sixty-fourth Congress.

In his letter he said in part: "This cartoon with its false quotation, endeavor to place Gov. Hughes in opposition to policies of which he was, as governor of New York, the most conspicuous exponent. He was then and is now the most visible government. His every public act was straight forward, open, firm. Every promise he made he kept. Every declaration he backed by deeds.

As was as governor and will be as President, the protector of the people against greed."

nue northeast, both bruised about y and suffering from shock.

Gertrude Young, 666 Massachusetts avenue northeast, hurt on back and d.

James S. Payne, negro, 10 P street west, hurt on leg.

Three passengers who suffered slight uries and shock, refused to give their 20.

ount Pleasant car No. 333, west bound, charge of Conductor W. G. Martin, and operated by Motorman W. B. Runkles and Student Motorman E. J. O'Brien, was standing at North Capitol street and Massachusetts avenue, discharging passengers, when car No. 23, of the Eleventh street line, in charge of Conductor Thomas Green and operated by Motorman N. E. Groves, came down the hill behind it from Union Station.

According to Groves, his brakes refused to work and his car plunged at high speed into the rear of the car. The controller boxes were torn from both cars. Passengers were thrown into the aisles and shattered glass fell about them, causing most of the injuries.

A call was sent to Casualty Hospital, but a passing automobile took three of the most severely injured to that institution before the ambulance arrived. Dr. Buford, of Casualty Hospital, treated them. They were released last night.

An investigation was immediately begun by the police, who decided the collision was the result of defective brakes on the Eleventh street car.

Landover (Md.) Lady Relates

How Her Husband Suffered

for Twelve Years.

If you have been fighting stomach trouble, with the symptoms of indigestion, dyspepsia, headaches, backaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, constipation, liver or kidney trouble, or that terrible scourge—rheumatism.

"Are you sure he is the man?" asked Public Defender Pope.

"Yes," was the answer, "but he did not have whiskers then."

"I have not shaven for forty years," interrupted Harding.

"Case dismissed," said Judge Frederickson.

you should try the new preparation, Plant Juice, and you are then on the right road to good health. The action of this remedy is just as direct, just as positive, and just as certain in its influence on the human system as that the morning follows the night.

That this is proven conclusively, it is only necessary to listen to the statements of well-known local people, who daily call at the headquarters of the Plant Juice Man, at the People's Drug store, corner of Seventh and E streets.

Selected from a mass of written testimonials is that of Mrs. William Craven, who lives at Landover, Md., and whose husband is a well-known and popular conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad. She tells how her husband was relieved of a bad case of stomach trouble by Plant Juice, as follows:

"My husband was a sufferer for twelve years with his stomach; everything he ate fermented and formed gas and he dreaded to sit down to a meal and could not even retain a piece of toast on his stomach; he could not sleep at night as the gas pressed against his heart and gave him such pain that he had to sit propped up in bed all night. He was very nervous and his liver and kidneys were badly affected; he had terrible pains in his back and side. We had read of the wonderful cures that Plant Juice had made in other cities, and he concluded, as a last resort, he would try a bottle, although he was very much discouraged of ever obtaining relief, as he had spent hundreds of dollars for medicines, but the only thing that relieved him was Plant Juice. He has taken two bottles and the result has been marvelous. He can eat anything he wants; is not nervous, and can sleep fine at night. Plant Juice has made a new man of him, and he is glad to recommend it to others."

The Plant Juice Man is at the People's Drug Store, corner of Seventh and E streets, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.—Adv.

TEN WIDOWS ASK PENSIONS.

Washington County Commissioners Hear Applicants.

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 5.—The Board of County Commissioners, in special session here, heard the testimony of ten applicants for the benefit of the mothers pension act.

So far thirty-six applications from widows have been received and in nearly all cases the maximum amount of $40 a month was asked. The testimony will be turned over to the court to be passed upon.

Taft as Peace Envoy

TO EUROPE PROPOSED

Theodore Marburg, Former Minister to Belgium, Discloses Plan.

New York, Nov. 5.—Theodore Marburg, who was United States Minister to Belgium in 1913-14, and who is now a vice chairman of the executive committee and chairman of the committee on foreign organization of the League to Enforce Peace, in an address at Mount Morris Baptist Church in this city this evening, dealt with a constructive scheme of world statesmanship to be put into effect immediately after the close of the war.

For one thing, he proposed that ex-President Taft, who is the president of the League to Enforce Peace, should be sent to Europe at once to negotiate what President Wilson has called "some sort of joint guarantee of peace."

Immediate action is essential, in Mr. Marburg's opinion, because of the fear that men will forget the horrors of war as soon as the fighting ends, and the world be disappointed as it was by the congress of Vienna a century ago.

"The brief program of the League to Enforce Peace has met with wide acceptance, not only by private citizens, but by many men in public life and in positions of power in America and Europe. It is approved in principle here at home. Foreign ministers of European countries have indicated their personal approval. The outlook is hopeful."

WANAMAKER SCORES

"PLOT" OF DEMOCRATS

Says Every Postmaster Will Get Wire to Vote for Wilson.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Nov. 5.—Former Postmaster General John Wanamaker has issued a statement sharply denouncing a scheme reported to him whereby the Wilson campaign managers had planned to coerce postmasters into voting for Wilson. Mr. Wanamaker said:

"I have been informed that every postmaster in the country is to receive a telegram telling him to vote for Woodrow Wilson. When I was in the Post-office Department I would rather have my right hand cut off than to let a man to vote for any man for President because he had a $1,000 job in the department."

"I am informed upon unimpeachable authority that the telegrams have been filed with both the large telegraph companies."

"To my mind it is a crime to attempt to intimidate postmasters with $800 a year or $1,000 a year jobs, or even the higher salaries postmasters, to vote for Mr. Wilson. That office means that man's bread and butter, and to intimidate him that Mr. Wilson is not elected he loses his office is beyond all reason in decent politics."

"From what I have been able to learn, the messages are worded practically alike. I have been unable to find out, however, whose signature is attached to these telegrams. If these messages were sent, it must be with the knowledge of Mr. Wilson, and if this is the case the scheme is, in my opinion, a piece of unclean politics, which I never would have countenanced as Postmaster General."

WHISKERS PROVE INNOCENCE.

California County Farm Inmate Escapes Theft Charge.

Los Angeles, Nov. 5.—Because he hasn't shaved for forty years, Fred Harding, 51 years old, a county farm inmate, was enabled to prove his innocence when he was arraigned before Police Judge Frederickson on a charge of petty larceny.

Harding was accused of having stolen a revolver.

A pawnbroker identified the aged man as the person from whom he purchased the weapon.

"Are you sure he is the man?" asked Public Defender Pope.

"Yes," was the answer, "but he did not have whiskers then."

"I have not shaven for forty years," interrupted Harding.

"Case dismissed," said Judge Frederickson.

For Grip, Influenza

COLDS

The Diagnosis of a Cold

If a person subject to Catarrh or Influenza finds himself sneezing and sniffing, he has taken Cold, though he cannot tell how.

If a person liable to Bronchitis, has roughness, scraping or dryness in the throat, he has taken Cold.

If a person subject to Quinsy finds his tonsils swollen and painful swallowing, he has taken Cold.

A Cold, however slight, should never be left to "get well" of itself, but should always be helped away. This at first is not alone very easy, but a very simple matter, because these early symptoms are all caused by congestion and inflammation.

To get the best results and help the Cold away take "Seventy-seven" at the first sign of a Cold.

POLICE IN READINESS

FOR ELECTION NIGHT

Downtown Sections to Be Patrolled by Twice Usual Detail.

Special provision for handling election night crowds have been arranged by Major Raymond Pullman and his inspectors.

Nearly double the usual number of men will be on duty in the four central city precincts. Practically half the force will police the downtown streets and a hundred more men will be on reserve.

Half the day force will report at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of at 8 in the morning. A special force will be detailed downtown, consisting of more than a hundred men. More than three hundred policemen and plain clothes men will be on duty throughout the city.

No extraordinary rush on the police stations is expected by Major Pullman and no extra accommodations have been made to handle prisoners at the First precinct.

"We do not expect much trouble with the crowds," said the Major.

The police, it was stated, can keep order without resorting to strong arm work. Rowdiness will be quickly put down.

Traffic will be diverted at crowded points on Pennsylvania avenue and every effort will be made to prevent injuries to pedestrians.

POLITICAL OBSERVERS

AT SEA ON PREDICTIONS

All Agree on Ohio as the Pivotal State, However.

big majority in Ohio for Wilson will mean the loss of Michigan and Illinois for Hughes.

A Democrat of national repute, connected with the National Committee, said: "While we think we will carry New York we do not regard our success here as being vital. We look for a landslide throughout the country for Wilson, and will be disappointed if it does not come."

The greatest interest tonight hinges on the trio of Central Western States—Ohio, Indiana and Illinois—where it is generally conceded the result of the Presidential contest will be determined.

In Ohio State Chairman Charles Hatfield tonight predicted victory for Hughes, Willis and Herrick by 60,000 to 100,000. W. L. Finley, Democratic State chairman, claims 100,000 plurality for Wilson, and declares the entire Democratic State ticket will win.

Odds Favor Wilson.

Betting odds in Columbus tonight slightly favor Wilson, but on the other hand, favor the re-election of Willis as governor. Polls of the State show Willis running ahead of his ticket and with a comfortable lead over Cox.

Although Tom Taggart declares Indiana is safely in the Democratic column, naming no figures, however, Republican State Chairman Will H. Hays declares today that the Republicans will carry the State by a large plurality. He declared that the breach between the Progressives has been entirely healed and that the reunited party will sweep Hughes to victory.

Both the Democrats and Republicans claim Illinois by 150,000. Both also claim Cook County, in which Chicago is situated. A three-way fight in Chicago for the State's attorneyship is expected to have great influence on the city vote.

MacLay Hoyne, the Democratic incumbent, is seeking re-election and is engaged in a close contest with Henry B. Miller, Republican, and William A. Cunneen, Socialist. About 70,000 are privileged to vote for President in Illinois, out of a total estimated vote of 1,500,000.

Claims in Massachusetts.

The Republicans claim Massachusetts by 75,000 to 100,000. State Chairman E. A. Thurston, basing his predictions on the return of the Progressive vote, declares the entire State ticket will go through. Democratic State Chairman Michael A. O'Leary conceded a Republican majority for Congress and the legislature. He declares the Presidential vote of the State will show a plurality for the Democrats.

In Connecticut the Republicans claim a plurality for Hughes of 20,000. On the other hand the Democratic State chairman, David E. Fitzgerald, declares Wilson will win by 10,000 to 15,000. Both Democrats and Republicans claim victory in the Senatorial contest between George P. McLean, Republican, the present incumbent, and Homer S. Cummings.

The Republicans in Delaware are engaged in a factional contest, but declare that Hughes will carry the State by about 50,000. Because of the Republican differences the Democrats declare they will pile up a safe plurality.

Conservative interest is being manifested in the Northwestern States. Minnesota is claimed by the Democrats as doubtful and claimed in the safe column by the Republicans. North Dakota, on the other hand, is claimed by both parties, although the Republicans would like they will pile up a plurality three times as large as that claimed by the Democrats.

Lively Senatorial Contest.

A lively Senatorial contest in which John Burke, Treasurer of the United States is seeking the seat now held by Porter J. McCumber, has lent interest to the contest in this State. The Democrats claim a plurality of 6,000 for Wilson and of 7,000 for Burke, while the Republicans claim the State will win by not less than 30,000; that Hughes will poll 20,000 plurality, and that the entire State ticket will be elected.

Both Joseph H. Gaines, Republican chairman, and Clem Shaver, Democratic state chairman, claim West Virginia by 20,000.

In Kansas, with an estimated total vote of 650,000, the campaign has been so strenuous that neither party tonight would hazard a guess as to possible pluralities, although both claim the State as safe for their candidate.

A peculiar situation exists in Oklahoma, where the Socialist strength is great. They claim victory for the State candidates, while the Republicans claim the State for a safe majority for Hughes. The Democrats declare they will have fully 30,000 plurality for both President Wilson and the State ticket.

SUES FOR BOMBARDMENT.

Dublin, Nov. 5.—Alderman James Kelly yesterday issued a writ against Capt. Bowen-Colthurst for bombarding his premises during the Irish rebellion here last spring. The writ was served on Capt. Bowen-Colthurst at the Broadmoor Asylum. The action will probably be tried in London.

Capt. Bowen-Colthurst was found "guilty, but insane," last June on the charge of shooting F. Sheehy Skeffington, a newspaper editor of Dublin, during the Irish rebellion. He was ordered committed to an institution for the insane "during His Majesty's pleasure."

Northwest Citizens to Meet.

The North Washington Citizens Association will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall of the N. P. Gage School, Second and V streets northwest.

DOG KIPS HORNET; GETS NIP.

Catches Insect in Mouth but Soon Regrets Exploit.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 5.—Catching a hornet in his mouth, a big bulldog in Glendale got an unpleasant surprise when the hornet became angry. Frothing at the mouth and emitting agonized growls and barks, the dog dashed into the yard of Mrs. Ben Hutton's home and crawled under the house.

Mrs. Hutton went under after him. In a few moments she emerged. "Was the dog mad?" she was asked. "Probably he was," she replied, "but who wouldn't be with a hornet in his mouth?"

PATHE FILM SERVICE

ENLISTED BY HERALD

Election Returns and Entertaining Pictures to Be Shown.

Entertainment as well as information will be provided for election night crowds by The Washington Herald, in conjunction with the Pathe Motion Picture Company. Detailed returns from all parts of the country, together with photoplays, comics and cartoons, will be the evening's program.

A mammoth screen will be erected in front of the Herald Building for this purpose. The contractor in charge of building the screen has estimated that it will be necessary to dig six feet below the sidewalk in order that the screen may have a substantial foundation.

The famous Pathe Company, which has established an international reputation in the moving picture world, will be in complete charge of the actual screen reproduction of all films and an expert operator for that company has been assigned to this special election night service. The Washington Herald is fortunate in having the co-operation of this company, which was the originator of the Pathe Weekly, the first news service of other sections of the city. The Herald has established a branch election service at the Florida open air picture park, Fifteenth and H streets northeast, for the convenience of residents of the northeast section. As returns will be read from the stage rapidly as the returns are received over the special International News Service wire in The Herald Building they will be flashed to the northeast park. Seating accommodations have been provided for 2,000 people at the park. No admission will be charged.

In addition to the Northeast Park service The Herald will relay returns to Loew's Columbia, the Cosmos, Moore's Strand and the Imperial Garden theaters, where they will be read from the stage.

Returns will be flashed, beginning about 7 o'clock and continue throughout the night. Special election wires have been installed in The Herald Building, over which the full service of the International News will be flashed.

The policy of The Washington Herald is to discourage the issuing of extra editions, except for the most startling and important news, but on election night the editorial and mechanical departments of the paper have prepared to issue special editions as rapidly as the importance of the news warrants.

On the morning following the election The Herald's election edition will contain complete returns from all parts of the country, with statements by and photographs of the candidates and opinions of campaign managers and leading politicians. The price of this edition will be one cent.

Political Notes

Berlin, Nov. 4 (via London, Nov. 5).—The German press shows considerable interest in the approaching American election, printing and re-printing summaries of the situation from old English newspapers. The Roman Catholic organ, the Koelnische Volks Zeitung, today quoted the entire text of a speech made by the German people at one time, it says, sided with one of the candidates because they assumed that he was more friendly to Germany than the other.

The Frankfurter Allgemeine, a leading editorial expressing the opinion that the outcome of the election is very much in doubt. It treats with great sympathy President Wilson's program for amending the constitution, and for the establishment of a peace organization of the peace idea, but refrains from expressing preference between candidates.

New York, Nov. 5.—In the name of that honest Democrat, Cleveland, W. H. Vanwart, of Caldwell, N. J., secretary of the Grover Cleveland Birthplace Memorial Association, has issued a fervent appeal to Cleveland Democrats to support returning Woodrow Wilson to the Presidency. In a letter to William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee, Mr. Vanwart says:

"In the name of that honest Democrat, Grover Cleveland, whose name and memory I delight to honor, I want to make my solemn protest against such language as President Wilson is reported to have used in a recent speech at Long Branch, when he said:

"You cannot worship God on an empty stomach, and you cannot be a patriot when you are starving."

"Such language is a foul blot on our American manhood, and I resent it with all the force that is in me. Never were baser words uttered."

"When Secretary Baker compared our patriotic forefathers with Mexican bandits I hoped he was misquoted, but now his chief says something that is still worse. Does not this show the trend of opinion at the White House?"

MEN'S MISSION OPENED.

Week of Special Service for Women at St. Paul's Church Ended.

The women's mission in St. Paul's Catholic Church, Fifteenth and V streets northwest, closed yesterday afternoon, when a sermon was delivered by Rev. John B. Delaney, C. S. C. Seventy-six new members were received into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. The Papal benediction was bestowed by Rev. Louis Kelley, C. S. C.

The men's mission opened last evening. For one week. A sermon was preached by Rev. Michael Mathis, C. S. C. Rev. James F. Mackin is pastor of the church.

SEE NO EFFECT ON WAR.

Vienna (via London), Nov. 5.—The Austro-Hungarian press, which a week ago paid no attention to the American Presidential campaign, has discussed the subject during the last few days as thoroughly as the fragmentary reports reaching Vienna will permit. Generally the papers express the opinion that the result of the Presidential election will have no influence upon the war.

Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Wife of Cafe Owner, Hurt in Crash.

Rumors to the effect that Vice President Marshall's automobile had been wrecked and that Mrs. Marshall had been injured caused considerable excitement in official Washington last night. It was learned later that a similarity of names had caused a misunderstanding. The car damaged was the property of Thomas R. Marshall, proprietor of the Loskam Cafe. The accident happened at Fourteenth and F streets at 6 o'clock in the evening, when a street car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company and Marshall's electric automobile collided. The machine was damaged to the extent of $100 and Mrs. Marshall, who was in the automobile, suffered injuries to her arm. According to the traffic policeman on duty at the corner,
